

WSA College Scholarship Program

The Westfield Soccer Association, “Club”, offers Scholarship Awards to graduating High School seniors who have contributed to the success of our Club. Scholarships will be awarded in increments of $500.00 and is open to any current Club member (player, referee, volunteer, etc.) in good standing entering a post-secondary institution for the 2018/19 School year.

To apply applicants must be/have:

- A current active member of the Club during the 2017/2018 Season
- Contributed to the success of the Westfield Soccer Club
- Demonstrated contributions to the sport of soccer in areas such as leadership, volunteerism and community service.
- Promoted team success over individual achievement.
- Demonstrated the principles of Sportsmanship throughout their membership.

Current Club Players that are candidates for consideration must be nominated by their current Coach. They will be notified by their Coach and be required to write an essay to accompany the Coach’s nomination.

Non-current Club Players (Referee and/or Volunteer) may nominate themselves. This path requires sponsorship and a recommendation from a WSA Board Member. The nominee must complete the Nomination Application, receive a WSA Board Member recommendation and write an essay.

All applications and essays are due by July 1, 2018 and winning candidates will be informed on or around July 31 2018. Winners will be announced via the Club’s web site. The WSA Selection Committee is comprised of Board Trustees and Scholarship recipients are approved by the Board.
